Ansaldo Poggi (OTTO ITALY)

The "Ansaldo Poggi" violin is a tribute to the great modern Italian master Ansaldo Poggi. This violin is closely modeled after Ansaldo Poggi's violin made in 1959 with precise and clean execution of the F-holes in the master's style. Every violin was graduated individually with excellent choice of tone wood according to the wood character. The varnish is yellow orange. Made in Cremona, Italy.

OTTO FRANCE

Auguste Garde & Louis Descombes

The Auguste Garde and Louis Descombes instruments are made in Mirecourt, France: the cradle of the great French violin making tradition. Each instrument is individually graduated according to the tonewood character and crafted with the utmost attention to detail. Exquisite choice of tonewood. Reddish dark brown varnish with French polish finish for the Auguste Garde model, and amber brown varnish with matte finish for the Louis Descombes model.
